

Stewards of the Coast and Redwoods

Community Education

Seminars in 2014

Learn about the Natural and Cultural Resources in Your State Parks

Salmon and Fishing in the Russian River

Jan. 25, 1 - 4 pm, Guerneville Vets Building

Exploration of the life cycles and biology of Russian River Salmon and Steelhead.

Exploring the Intertidal Zone Field Seminar

Karl Menard, Bodega Marine Lab Staff

Jan. 28, 1:30 - 4 pm, Shell Beach, Sonoma Coast

A lively session of tidepool exploration. Bring waterproof boots, a change of clothes and dress in layers.

Pinnipeds of the Sonoma Coast with Dr. Sarah Allen

Feb. 8, 9 am - 2 pm, bring lunch, Bodega Bay Fire

Learn about harbor seals, sea lions and elephant seals.

The Art of Tracking: Seeing Patterns on a Landscape

Meghan Walla-Murphy, Biologist

Feb. 22, 9 am - 3 pm, Bodega Dunes, Sonoma Coast

Meghan will share the discipline and mechanics of tracking, as a non-invasive way to research and conserve wildlife.

Registration required

$20 or $10 discount for members of Stewards
Information and registration at:

www.stewardsofthecoastandredwoods.org

707.869.9177 • stewards@mcn.org

P.O. Box 2, Duncans Mills, CA 95430

Community Education Seminars

2014

Archeology and History of Sonoma Coast

Mar. 8, 9 am - 2 pm, bring lunch, Bodega Bay

Field seminar on the fascinating changes that have taken place from an archeological and historic perspective.

Wildlife of Western Sonoma County

Mar. 15, 1 - 4 pm, Armstrong Redwoods

Join Bill Nay, SC Bird Rescue, to learn about banana slugs to mountain lions, learn the stories told by scat and tracks.

Geology of Sonoma Coast

Mar. 22, 9:30 am - 3 pm, bring lunch, Jenner

Learn about unique geologic formations, landforms, geologic history, plate tectonics and their significance.

Plants of the Redwood Understory

Mar. 23, 1 - 4 pm, Armstrong Redwoods

Take an easy hike with Sherrie Althouse, Cal Flora Nursery. Explore the plants adapted to the deep shade of the redwood forest floor where massive roots and duff dominate.

Cultural History of Sonoma Coast

Apr 5, 1 - 4 pm, Guerneville Vets Hall

Learn about the cultural history of Sonoma Coast State Park including Kashaya Pomo, Russians, Ranching and Logging.

Introduction to the Coastal Prairie

Apr 19, 9:30 am - 2:30 pm, bring lunch

Shell Beach, Sonoma Coast

Moderate hike with Michelle Cooper to learn about the most diverse and endangered native grassland in North America.

The Legacy of Pond Farm Pottery

May 3, 1 - 4:00 pm, Armstrong Redwoods/Austin Creek

Join Anthony Veerkamp, National Trust and Laura Parent, State Parks to hear the story of Marguerite Wildenhain.

Birding on the Sonoma Coast

May 18, 2014, 9 - Noon, Goat Rock State Beach

Explore birdlife near the mouth of the Russian River with Lisa Hug.

Harbor Seal Viewing by Kayak

May 31, 2014, 9 am - 12:30 pm, Jenner Visitor Center

View harbor seals by boat. Kayak rental fees apply.